

Directions from Ghent

If programming a sat-nav: the town is Hallines, the gates are on Rue de l'Eglise, and the postcode of the region is 62570.

Join the E17 south of Ledeborg, towards Kortrijk, Rijsel and Lille. Follow the road for 50 kilometres, passing over the French border where the road becomes the A22.

Take Exit 13B signposted Armentieres, Dunkerque, Calais, and join the D652. Drive for 13 kilometres, and then join the A25/E42 towards Armentieres, Dunkerque and Calais.

After 22 kilometres come off at Junction 11 and at the roundabout take the third exit onto the D642 towards Hazebrook, Saint Omer, Boulogne.

Follow the D642 for 15 kilometres, going straight over each roundabout.

At the Fort Rouge roundabout the D624 becomes the D211. Keep following this road for another 10 kilometres and you will reach Hallines.

The road passes over the canal, then go straight over the first roundabout. Take the second exit at the next, staying on the D211. At the next roundabout take the third exit, still remaining on the D211.

The D211 eventually reaches Wizernes, and then Hallines. Drive through Hallines until you see the Mairie on the right, and at the next traffic lights turn left onto Rue de l'Eglise.

Pass the church on your left and drive straight on for fifty metres.

At the sharp bend, being careful and using the mirror on the pole, drive through the white gates. Park to the left of the house, by the front door.
